Sir,

I have the honor to state that one Mahadevaiah, Archik of Arma- -chelesvara and Bhimesvara Temples, in the Harohalli village of the Ram- -kanhalli Taluk fell ill about May 1901 and went to his village, placing one Giriappa a distant relative in charge of the temples to do his duties. A few days after, Mahadevaiah died. His brother, Nanjundaiah applied for the post, and the Assistant commissio ner in charge of the Division passed orders, appointing him (Vanjundiah) as Archik of the temples. But notwithstanding this, Giriappa continued to be the Archik till February 1902, when Vanjundiah went to the place to take up his appointment, Giri-appa refused to hand over his charges and preferred an appeal to the Assistant Commissioner and prayed that the pay (paditthara) of the Archik may be kept in abeyance until the disposal of his appeal. Accordingly, the Assistant Commissioner held an enquiry and in September 1902, it was finally ordered that Vanjundiah was the proper heir and therefore Giriappa should make over the charges of the the Archikship to Nainpuda Thus the pay due to the Archik fell in arrears till that time.

The Taluk authorities then drew and paid the full amount in December 1902. In August 1906, the Comptroller took objection to the procedure and directed that as the above drawal exceeded the amount of allotment for 1902-03, by Rs-a-p 25-9-2, it should be credited back into the Treasury. Accordingly, in September 1906, a sum of Rs 25-9-2 was drawn from the current years' allotment and credited back into the Treasury and the pad ittara amount due to the temples for that month could not be paid and fell in arrears. On account of the dispute, the allowance for the months of February to June in 1902 was not not at all drawn, thus allowing the proportionate allotment to lapse to Government.

2. Under the above circumstances I herewith forward for your sanction a bill for Rs 25-9-2.

3. The entire file of correspondence ending with Closepet Division Officer's Yadi No. 1224 dated 2nd February 1907 is herewith forwarded for reference.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedient Servant.
